

Using the Library Catalogue

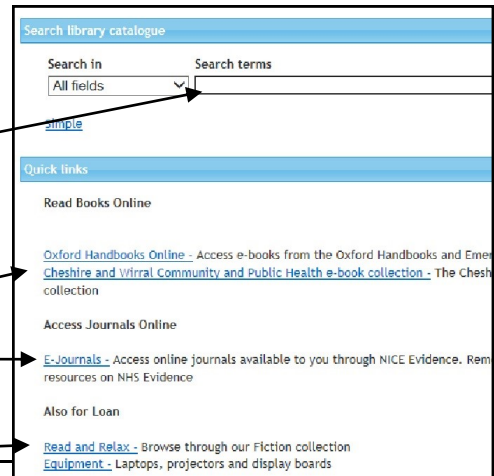

The catalogue is accessible at <http://arrowe.cirqahosting.com>

To search the catalogue:
Select 'Enter Library'

Searching for items

- The catalogue will search all library items including books, electronic books, journals, CDs and DVDs.
- Basic and Advanced Search options are available.
- If you know the item you are looking for, type the Author or Title in the search box.
- You can also search by keyword or subject

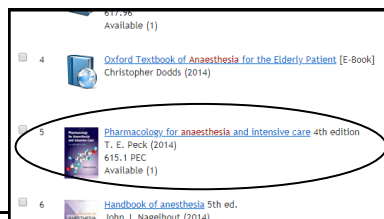

Quick Links

You can access e-journals and e-books by using the Quick Links on the main search page. You will need an Open Athens account to access these titles.

You can also find links to the recreational reading collection ("Read and Relax")

Viewing your results

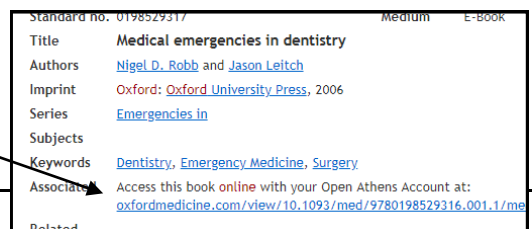

Your results will be listed; select a result to view more information about that item.

E-books and E-journals

If you have searched for an e-book or e-journal, a link will be displayed in the Detailed display.

You will need your Open Athens account to access the e-book or e-journal.

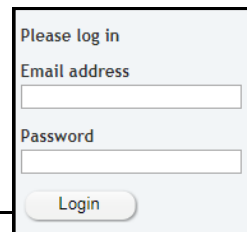

Renewing items

To renew items, you need to access your own personal borrower information. You can do this from the Search page.

This area of the catalogue requires you to log in. Library staff can supply you with your password.

To renew any items you have on loan, follow the on-screen instructions.

If you cannot find the item you want, please ask about our document supply and inter-library loan service.
