Shout Outs - Thursday 28th May 2026

Please see the following shout outs that have come in about our amazing staff.

If you would like to give a 'shout out' to a colleague, please email wih-tr.communications@nhs.net with the subject 'Shout Out'.

Please include the surname and job title of the member of staff to be given a shout out. Make sure you have spelled their name correctly.

Please also remember that we have the fantastic WUTH eCards available for all staff to use and send cards to each other. The cards cover a range of situations including Thank You and Great Work. All PCs and laptops have this icon on the desktop to access eCards.

Amy O-Callaghan-Smith, Screening Support Sonographer, and her deputy, Jen Hodgkinson

Thank you both for all your hard work, support and guidance, ensuring that a high standard ultrasound service is being delivered in line with national FASP guidance. As a team we all really appreciate the effort you have both put in, especially recently, pushing forward with training and peer audit.

Valerie Wood, Ophthalmology Medical Secretary

A huge shout out to Val, who is retiring next month after showing tremendous dedication throughout her time at WUTH. Val's commitment, hard work and contribution over the years have been greatly valued, and she has made a lasting impact on both colleagues and the service. She will be hugely missed by everyone who has had the pleasure of working with her. Thank you for everything you have done, Val, and wishing you a very happy and well-deserved retirement.

Jen Townley, Radiology - X Ray Breast Screening

A special shout out to Jen Townley, who is not only a valued member of the Breast Screening Team but has also excelled in her recent apprenticeship. Jen's hard work, commitment and positive attitude are greatly appreciated by her colleagues, and her achievement is thoroughly deserved. Congratulations, Jen, and very well done on your fantastic accomplishment.

Rosemary Roberts, Macmillan Cancer Support Worker

A special thank you for Rosemary Roberts, Macmillan Cancer Support Worker, for looking after her colleague's wellbeing and showing kindness and support at every opportunity.

Ruth Summers, Assistant Buyer

A big shout out to Ruth Summers, Buyer from the Clinical Team, for her fantastic support. Whenever support is needed with adding items or checking the status of an order, Ruth is always incredibly helpful, efficient and quick to respond. Her support makes a huge difference to the Newborn Hearing service and is greatly appreciated. Thank you, Ruth, for your continued help and dedication, your hard work does not go unnoticed.
