Shout Outs – Thursday 13th August 2026

Please see the following shout outs that have come in about our amazing staff.

If you would like to give a 'shout out' to a colleague, please email wih-tr.communications@nhs.net with the subject 'Shout Out'.

Please include the surname and job title of the member of staff to be given a shout out. Make sure you have spelled their name correctly.

Please also remember that we have the fantastic WUTH eCards available for all staff to use and send cards to each other. The cards cover a range of situations including Thank You and Great Work. All PCs and laptops have this icon on the desktop to access eCards.

Ryan Rowan - Senior Pharmacy Support Worker

A massive shout out to Ryan Rowan for continuing to go above and beyond in everything he does. Ryan's hard work, dedication and willingness to put in that extra effort are hugely appreciated and do not go unnoticed. His continued support makes a real difference to those around him and is a fantastic example of teamwork and commitment. Thank you, Ryan, for all your hard work and for always going the extra mile. Keep up the fantastic work!

Amy Roney and Ahmed Atcha, Specialist Optometrists

A huge shout out and congratulations to Amy and Ahmed, who have both successfully completed the Independent Prescribing course and recently passed their final exam. This is a fantastic achievement and reflects the hard work, commitment and dedication they have both put into their professional development. They will now be able to register as Non-Medical Prescribers and put their new skills and knowledge into practice. Congratulations, Amy and Ahmed, a brilliant achievement and very well deserved!

Janine Stebbings, Diabetes & Endocrinology Support Secretary

Thank you, Janine, for your support and efforts recently. It is really appreciated!

Susan Jones, Domestic Supervisor

A huge shout out to Susan Jones, Domestic Supervisor, for the passion, dedication and commitment she brings to leading the Environmental Team. Sue consistently goes above and beyond to ensure cleans are completed correctly and on time, always keeping patients and their needs at the heart of everything she does. She organises the team effectively, makes sure resources are used where they are needed most and is never afraid to get stuck in and help with cleans herself when required. Her hard work, efficiency and willingness to go the extra mile make a real difference every day. Thank you, Sue, for everything you do and for the fantastic support you provide to your team and our patients.
